

Robert J. Lamb

602.234.7840

rjl@jhc.law

Areas of Practice

Litigation

Creditors' Rights

Insurance Defense & Coverage

Surety & Fidelity Law

Appellate

Business Law

Construction Law

Employment Law

Mr. Lamb is a civil litigator. He represents individuals and businesses of all sizes, including financial institutions, sureties, insurance companies, construction contractors, and leasing companies. He has vast experience successfully litigating all aspects and stages of a civil lawsuit, including pleadings, discovery, motion practice, mediations, arbitrations, jury trials, and appeals.

Mr. Lamb joined the firm as an associate attorney in April 2013 and was named a partner in January 2018.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Lamb was an associate attorney at a consumer law firm, where he represented consumers in claims arising out of various consumer protection laws, including the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, the Fair Credit Report Act, and the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. This serves as invaluable experience as Mr. Lamb now assists the firm's business clients in achieving their goals (e.g. enforcing consumer/residential loans and other consumer contracts) while complying with the consumer protection laws. In addition, Mr. Lamb has used this experience to assist businesses in defending lawsuits filed pursuant these consumer protection laws.

Mr. Lamb has achieved multiple successful jury verdicts for his clients, including a several hundred-thousand-dollar award to a surety client and multiple defense verdicts in favor of insurance clients. He has also had success on appeal, including successfully representing a surety client in the appeal that resulted in the published decision of S & S Paving & Const., Inc. v. Berkley Reg'l Ins. Co., 239 Ariz. 512, 372 P.3d 1036 (App. 2016). In that decision, the Arizona Court of Appeals found that a surety on a payment bond for a public construction project may not be sued for bad faith.

Mr. Lamb is a graduate of the University of Michigan (B.S. in Philosophy, 2004) and the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University (J.D., Cum Laude, 2011). During law school, he was an extern with the Honorable Kristin Hoffman while she was a Maricopa County Superior Court Judge, and also with the Honorable Daniel Barker who was then a Judge with the Arizona Court of Appeals. Further, Mr. Lamb was an Associate Editor on the Arizona State Law Journal, and was a Rule 38 Attorney through the Arizona State Civil Justice Clinic.

Bar Admissions

White Mountain Apache Tribal Court

Hopi Tribal Court

Santa Clara Pueblo Tribal Court

Arizona

U.S. District of Arizona

Hualapai Tribal Court

Pueblo of Acoma Tribal Court

Tonto Apache Tribal Court

Education

Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona

J.D. Cum Laude (ranked 19th out of 167), 2011

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan

B.S. in Philosophy, 2004

Published Works

The Arizona Court of Appeals Rejects Bad Faith Claim Against Little Miller Act Sureties,
Surety & Fidelity Law Committee Newsletter (Winter 2017)

Honors and Awards

Selected to the Southwest Super Lawyers list – 2019

Professional Associations & Memberships

State Bar of Arizona

Maricopa County Bar Association

University of Michigan Alumni Association Phoenix

Contact Information

Jennings Haug Cunningham

2800 North Central Avenue, Suite 1800
Phoenix, AZ 85004

Phone: 602.234.7800

Fax: 602.277.5595

Get Directions

© 2018 by Jennings, Haug & Cunningham, L.L.P. All rights reserved. Disclaimer | Site Map
Privacy Policy | Business Development Solutions by FindLaw, part of Thomson Reuters.